PLENTY OF AMBITION

We know of a young man who only recently was very anxious to start in business for himself, and the prospects were bright, but he didn't have a dollar, save his salary that he depended upon from week to week.

AND HE FAILED

because he could not show that he had accumulated as much as fifty dollars.

DAILY LETTER

From

SANTA CLAUS

North Pole,
 December 11, 1920.

Mrs. Ida Haefel,
 Hammond, Indiana.

Dear Mrs. Haefel:

While I don't believe I can bring quite all the things you have requested, yet I have nearly all of them, already marked and packed for my trip south on the night of December 24th, this month.

You said you had been to one of your club meetings when you heard the women discussing what to get for their men folks. Now, I'm going to let you in on something. I was in Hammond very recently and was in The Model Clothing Store, where they have an excellent assortment of Sox, Ties, Mufflers, Gloves, and, oh say, be sure to take a good look at some of their Gents' Hats, the very latest creations in men's hattery, and if those club women can't find what they want there, I'll surely miss my guess.

Now, another thing. Any boys that you know of that want a bicycle, just assure them for me that they'll be taken care of all right, for I had Al. Walz, down there at 229 East State street, send me a car load of them. He makes quick deliveries and I know I'll have them all right.

The second section of the Great Reindeer Special is completed and we are now loading up the third section, which will contain all the rich gifts left by the Grand Boola Boola of the North Pole, who died a few days back. This section will also contain Straube Pianos and other musical instruments. The third section will be made up of about twenty-four huge sleds.

Well, have Leonard put out the cat and lock the doors, as I can get in all right with my patented golden key that will unlock any door on earth. So long till then.

SANTA CLAUS.

P. S.—Please phone Summers, the drug man, to have me a hot chocolate ready at 11:30 P. M. Christmas Eve.

FOR HER CHRISTMAS PRESENT — A FEDERAL ELECTRIC
Automatic Tension Adjuster
Proper Belt Tension All the Time

"Federal engineers know belt drive. Madam—its fitness for electric washer drive caused them to adopt it after exhaustive tests with gears, chains, etc. They know, too, a disadvantage which has kept other manufacturers from using it for years—slippage and loss of power.

But with characteristic thoroughness, they have eliminated completely this former source of trouble. The tension adjuster of the Federal automatically maintains proper belt tension by a simple spring idler pulley operating against the slack side of the belt.

Thus, the specially selected leather belt delivers its power smoothly and at highest efficiency all the time."
